Web lecture on Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) was conducted by MIT FGC Mysore on 16/7/2021. These web lectures were organized by the PG Department of Commerce in Association with the internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). The web lecture was delivered by two resource persons: Dr Devaraja Nayaka (Associate Professor Bangalore B School) and Dr Gagan K (Independent Legal Consultant). Over 98 participants attended the web lecture through online mode. Ms Sunitha, PG Coordinator, welcomed the gathering, followed by initial remarks from Prof. Nage Gowda, Principal of MIT FGC, Mysore. Resource person of the first session was Dr Devraja Nayaka, who spoke on the topic of “Innovations on Business and IPR”. His lecture started with an introduction to IPR with a PowerPoint presentation. During his session, he stressed the importance of IPR and its relevance in this time and it's necessary for the innovations in business and IPR, and he delivered more valuable information on IPR in the current scenario. This session was followed by 10 minutes of interaction with the students.

Speaker of the second session was Dr Gagan K (Independent Legal Consultant Bangalore). He spoke on the topic of “Legal Protection of Business Innovations” and explained various aspects of IPR. He highlighted on patents and distinguished patentable and non-patentable inventions in India around the world. He gave various examples on business innovations and concluded the session by explaining about the procedure for how to apply for IPR. The session ended with an interaction with students. Both the resource persons interacted with the students and shared practical experiences and examples. Mr Arun Kumar K. proposed a vote of thanks at the end of the session. The web lecture provided a valuable awareness and insights on the various aspects of IPR to the students.
